MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Jason is a Moody Bible Institute graduate, Bible teacher, and speaker. You'll need to input your Time Zone to see which lessons and groups are available to you. For example, in 2019, those in North and South America, Europe and Africa will focus on books like the Psalms, Joshua and 1 Kings. Take advantage of the in-person meetings in your area. Those in the Southern Hemisphere will focus their studies on the book of Romans. Online ApplicationFill out an online application to get started with your lessons. Your opinion matters just as much as anyone else's. You will be assigned a group leader to help you get started. This leader will let you know what classes are going on in your area or help to set you up with an ongoing online class and discussion group. Online Discussion GroupsOnline discussion groups meet once a week for about an hour. This starts at the home with his four young children as he helps his wife, Christy, to home school them and leads them in devotions and Bible story time daily. With a heavy emphasis on practical life change, Jason seeks to encourage believers to study the Word and then obey it by making specific and measurable applications. He uses his website and Bible study guides to help more people around the world become confident in studying the Bible, discover the plain meaning of the text, and lead Bible study groups. When he is not teaching, he enjoys playing basketball and playing board games with his kids. You can search online for specific types of groups geared towards you and your learning style. Be prepared to delve deep into certain passages as you navigate the Bible together. Our most popular content, Bible verses by topic, provides Biblical encouragement and wisdom for all of life's situations and events. He and his family live overseas where he has served the Lord as a disciple maker since 2002. The Jews had the same distinction we have now, the church and the world; the former they took to themselves, and the latter they gave to all the nations around; hence we often meet with this distinction, Israel, and the nations of the world; on those words, ``"let them bring forth their witness", that they may be justified, (Isaiah 43:9) (say F2 the doctors) these are Israel; "or let them hear and say it is truth", these are "the nations of the world"." And again F3, `` the holy, blessed God said to Israel, when I judge Israel, I do not judge them as "the nations of the world"." and so in a multitude of places; and it should be observed, that our Lord was now discoursing with a Jewish Rabbi, and that he is opposing a commonly received notion of theirs, that when the Messiah came, the Gentiles should have no benefit or advantage by him, only the Israelites; so far should they be from it, that, according to their sense, the most dreadful judgments, calamities, and curses, should befall them; yea, hell and eternal damnation. This also helps build trust within your group. Find out how you can start BSF online lessons today to further your spiritual walk. Class OptionsThere are many class options at Bible Study Fellowship online. So, whether you are learning online or meeting in-person, everyone will grow together at the same pace. BSF focuses on a specific learning curriculum each year. For example, there are lessons created for women, men, young adults and after school classes. Getting the Most Out of LessonsTo get the most out of your online lessons, follow these simple tips. Keep a study journal. The group leaders will help guide the teams in discussion regarding the assigned scripture reading. `` There is a place (they say F4) the name of which is "Hadrach", (Zechariah 9:1) . You may also have the chance to get other group members' contact information to chat about the lessons after discussion time. Other OptionsThere are so many other options for learning besides online group discussion. Find out how it applies to your everyday life. Write down questions you may have during and after your readings. Connect with your group outside of discussion time to develop long-lasting relationships. This will help you to stay prepared for the group discussions. Page 2 John 3:16 For God so loved the world The Persic version reads "men": but not every man in the world is here meant, or all the individuals of human nature; for all are not the objects of God's special love, which is here designed, as appears from the instance and evidence of it, the gift of his Son: nor is Christ God's gift to every one; for to whomsoever he gives his Son, he gives all things freely with him; which is not the case of every man. This is the King Messiah, who is, (Krv) (dx) , "sharp and tender"; sharp to "the nations", and tender to "Israel"." And so of the "sun of righteousness", in (Malachi 4:2) , they say F5, `` there is healing for the Israelites in it: but the idolatrous nations shall be burnt by it." And that F6 `` there is mercy for Israel, but judgment for the rest of the nations." And on those words in (Isaiah 21:12) , "the morning cometh", and also the night, they observe F7, `` the morning is for the righteous, and the night for the wicked; the morning is for Israel, and the night for "the nations of the world"." And again F8, `` in the time to come, (the times of the Messiah,) the holy, blessed God will bring "darkness" upon "the nations", and will enlighten Israel, as it is said, (Isaiah 60:2) ." Once more F9, `` in the time to come, the holy, blessed God will bring the nations of the world, and will cast them into the midst of hell under the Israelites, as it is said, (Isaiah 43:3) . " To which may be added that denunciation of theirs F11 `` woe to the nations of the world, who perish, and they know not that they perish: in the time that the sanctuary was standing, the altar atoned for them; but now who shall atone for them?" Now, in opposition to such a notion, our Lord addresses this Jew; and it is as if he had said, you Rabbins say, that when the Messiah comes, only the Israelites, the peculiar favourites of God, shall share in the blessings that come by, and with him; and that the Gentiles shall reap no advantage by him, being hated of God, and rejected of him: but I tell you, God has so loved the Gentiles, as well as the Jews, that he gave his only begotten Son; to, and for them, as well as for the Jews; to be a covenant of the people, the Gentiles, the Saviour of them, and a sacrifice for them; a gift which is a sufficient evidence of his love to them; it being a large and comprehensive one, an irreversible and unspeakable one; no other than his own Son by nature, of the same essence, perfections, and glory with him; begotten by him in a way inconceivable and expressible by mortals; and his only begotten one; the object of his love and delight, and in whom he is ever well pleased; and yet, such is his love to the Gentiles, as well as Jews, that he has given him, in human nature, up, into the hands of men, and of justice, and to death itself: that whosoever believeth in him, whether Jew or Gentile, should not perish, but have everlasting life; (See Gill on John 3:15). Try to find the practical meaning behind the verse. Nor is human nature here intended, in opposition to, and distinction from, the angelic nature; for though God has showed a regard to fallen men, and not to fallen angels, and has provided a Saviour for the one, and not for the other; and Christ has assumed the nature of men, and not angels; yet not for the sake of all men, but the spiritual seed of Abraham; and besides, it will not be easily proved, that human nature is ever called the world: nor is the whole body of the chosen ones, as consisting of Jews and Gentiles, here designed; for though these are called the world, (John 6:33 John 6:51) ; and are the objects of God's special love, and to them Christ is given, and they are brought to believe in him, and shall never perish, but shall be saved with an everlasting salvation; yet rather the Gentiles particularly, and God's elect among them, are meant; who are often called "the world", and "the whole world", and "the nations of the world", as distinct from the Jews; see (Romans 11:12 Romans 11:15) (1 John 2:2) (Luke 12:30) , compared with (Matthew 6:32) . Don't be afraid to speak up during discussion times. Make your reading a time of reflection and meditation to better understand and gain meaning from God's word. Fellowship in singing and prayer is also common during the lessons. Make sure you indicate that you are only interested in an online discussion group. Bible Study Fellowship offers an online and in-person community of spiritual warriors looking to gain more knowledge of God's word. I would highly recommend getting the print version and not the eBook, as I explain in the article above. After studying and teaching the Bible for many years, I've found what really matters in the long-run is not tools and techniques but the posture of the heart. When we study these names that He reveals to us in the Bible, we will better understand who God really is. The meanings behind God's names reveal the central personality and nature of the One who bears them.
